“I seek to share my insights, experiences and unique knowledge of the acting and casting profession so that I can help actors on their journey to fully realize the great potential that is within the grasp of any true aspiring artist.”

— Paul Weber, C.S.A.

*“There are good actors... and then there is what happens in The Room.”*

— Paul Weber, C.S.A.

“It is Paul’s gift to actors, to reach them and teach them to be better performers is truly a site to behold . . . I highly recommend Paul Weber’s class to directors of schools and institutes worldwide.”

— Marg Haynes, Director, The Australian Institute for Performing Arts

*“Paul Weber saw a skinny, uncredited actor audition for the role of a hulking, iconic gladiator. Everything I knew about auditions told me, no matter how hard I tried, I didn’t have a chance. Paul taught me the things I assumed about casting could be wrong – a good casting director will see the potential, regardless of the situation. His vision, belief and advice through the audition process was instrumental in me getting cast in Spartacus, something that has opened an entire career to me, and completely changed my life.”*

— Liam McIntyre, Star of “Spartacus”
